

Forensic Foundations

PO Box 2279, Ringwood North, VIC 3134

Phone: 0429 966 012

Fax: 03 9876 2320

anna.davey@forensicfoundations.com.au
www.forensicfoundations.com.au

Building evidence on strong foundations

The forensic process

“Forensic - Of, pertaining to, or used in a court of law”

Oxford English Dictionary.

The forensic process relates to any work that is conducted for or in a legal context.

It includes:

Forensic Foundations can

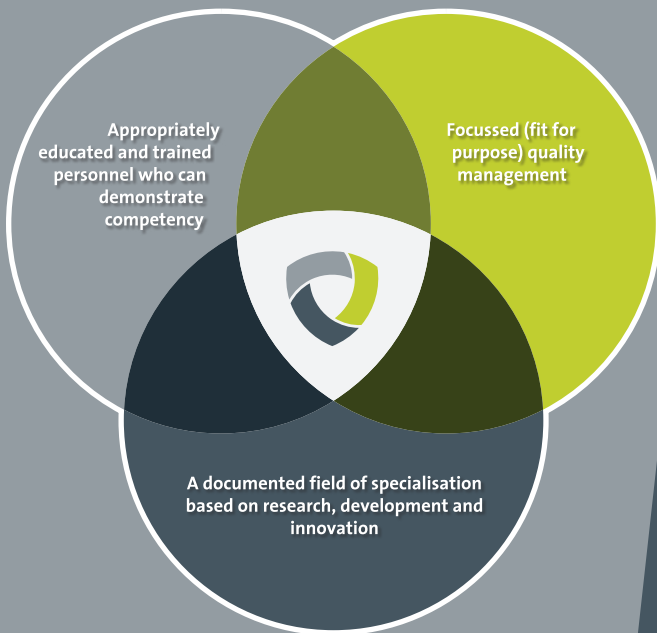

Facilitate discipline-specific training in one or more of the domains above

Provide ‘foundation’ and ‘capstone’ training where the domains intersect/overlap.

Foundations

What are the foundations of strong evidence for an investigation or a legal process?

Regardless of the field of study, discipline, profession, or trade, strong evidence is based on three underpinning principles.

Analysis

Examination

Capstone

The capstone of any examination or analysis, for an investigation or a legal process, will involve these three critical steps.

Our programs

What does Forensic Foundations provide?

Services include:

- ✓ Education (assessed or non assessed)
- ✓ Training (assessed or non assessed)
- ✓ Project management
- ✓ Facilitation
- ✓ Event management.

Who can participate?

Forensic Foundations can prepare and deliver programs for:

- ✓ Individuals
- ✓ Small groups
- ✓ Professional organisations
- ✓ Universities and tertiary institutes
- ✓ Schools (including interactive learning)
- ✓ Community groups.

How are services delivered?

Programs can be developed to meet your specific needs, ranging from:

- ✓ One hour presentations
- ✓ Half day workshops
- ✓ Full day workshops
- ✓ Multi day workshops
- ✓ Block periods
- ✓ Weekly, fortnightly, monthly sessions.