

WITHSTANDING LEGAL SCRUTINY OF YOUR ANALYTICAL TESTING

Flexible, Fit-for-Purpose
Forensic Training

Asked to undertake analytical testing for legal purposes?
Asked to write a legal report?
Asked to give expert evidence?

Are you apprehensive about?

- What this involves?
- Your legal obligations?
- How your QM system can assist?
- How to correctly answer questions?
- The difference between fact and opinion?
- Court protocol?

The purpose of this one-day awareness course is to support risk management processes within laboratories and testing facilities.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

All levels of staff who have not had experience with the Australian legal system but recognise that the nature of their testing work means there is a possibility of having their testing results examined in a legal context.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

After completion of this course participants will have:

- An understanding of the Australian legal system
- An understanding of the role of the 'expert' in the legal system
- An understanding of the practices required for analytical testing to be admitted into legal argument
- The understanding to implement these requirements in relation to their specific testing regimes

COURSE PRESENTER

MRS ANNA DAVEY
Director
Forensic Foundations

Anna Davey was a member of the team that introduced DNA profiling to Victoria in criminal casework. In that role, she spent many a happy hour in the witness box. In 2000, Anna joined the National Institute of Forensic Science as Deputy Director and in 2008, she established Forensic Foundations, a specialised service providing tools for both non-legal and legal practitioners working at the interface between expert knowledge and legal argument. Anna has been conducting expert witness training since 2001. Anna holds the following qualifications: MSc, Grad Dip Legal Studies, Grad Cert Public Sector Management and Cert IV in training and assessment.
